OTHER LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

The Panel is not aware of any other legal proceedings that relate to the Disputed domain name.

IDENTIFICATION OF RIGHTS

The Complainant is the registered owner of international word trademark “Boehringer-Ingelheim.”, reg. no. 221544, registered on 2 July 1959 for goods and services in classes 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 16, 17, 19, 29, 30 and 32 and U.S. word trademark reg.no. 641166 “BOEHRINGER-INGELHEIM“, registered on 5 February 1957 for goods and services in class 5 (“Complainant’s Trademarks”).

The Disputed domain name <baehringer-ingelheim.com> was registered on 21 July 2017.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

As the Respondent did not file any response to the complaint, the Panel took into account the following facts asserted by the Claimant (and supported by the documentary evidence submitted by the Claimant) and unchallenged by the Respondent:

(a) The Complainant is a German family-owned pharmaceutical group of companies with roots going back to 1885, when it was founded by Albert Boehringer (1861-1939) in Ingelheim am Rhein. Ever since, Boehringer has become a global research-driven pharmaceutical enterprise and has today about 140 affiliated companies, world-wide with roughly 46,000 employees. The two main business areas of Boehringer are Human Pharmaceuticals and Animal Health. In 2013 alone, net sales of the Boehringer group of companies amounted to about EUR 14.1 billion;

(b) the Complainant is the owner of the Complainant's Trademarks;

(c) Complainant owns multiple domain names consisting in the wording "Boehringer Ingelheim", such as <boehringer-ingelheim.com> since 1 September 1995;

(d) the Disputed domain name was registered on 21 July 2017; and

(e) Respondent is using the Disputed domain name in connection with a website which points to a parking webpage. The Complainant seeks transfer of the Disputed domain name to the Complainant.

PARTIES CONTENTIONS

THE COMPLAINANT:

In addition to the above factual assertions, the Complainant also contends the following:

(i) Disputed domain name is confusingly similar to the Complainant's Trademarks;

(ii) Disputed domain name is also a clear case of "typosquatting", i.e. the Disputed domain name contains an obvious misspelling of the Complainant's Trademarks;

(iii) the Respondent is not affiliated with the Complainant nor authorized by it in any way to use Complainant's Trademarks. The Complainant does not carry out any activity for, nor has any business with the Respondent;

(iv) the Disputed domain name displays a parking page. It demonstrates a lack of legitimate interests in respect of the Disputed domain name;

(v) registering the Disputed domain name with the misspelling of the Complainant's Trademark was intentional attempt to create confusing similarity with the Complainant's trademarks and thus the registration was done in bad faith; and

(vi) the Disputed domain name has been registered by the Respondent in an effort to take advantage of the good reputation Complainant had built in its BOEHRINGER INGELHEIM® trademarks, with the sole aim to create a likelihood of confusion with the Complainant's Trademarks and domain names.

THE RESPONDENT:

The Respondent did not provide any response to the complaint.

RIGHTS

The Panel concluded that the Disputed domain name is confusingly similar to the Complainant's Trademarks within the meaning of paragraph 4(a)(i) of the Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy ("UDRP" or "Policy").

For details, please see "Principal Reasons for the Decision".

NO RIGHTS OR LEGITIMATE INTERESTS

The Complainant has, to the satisfaction of the Panel, shown the Respondent to have no rights or legitimate interests in respect of the Disputed domain name within the meaning of paragraph 4(a)(ii) of the Policy.

For details, please see "Principal Reasons for the Decision".

BAD FAITH

The Complainant has, to the satisfaction of the Panel, shown the Disputed domain name has been registered and is being used in bad faith within the meaning of paragraph 4(a)(iii) of the Policy.

For details, please see "Principal Reasons for the Decision".

PROCEDURAL FACTORS

The Panel is satisfied that all procedural requirements under UDRP were met and there is no other reason why it would be inappropriate to provide a decision.

PRINCIPAL REASONS FOR THE DECISION

Paragraph 4(a) of the UDRP Policy requires that the Complainant proves each of the following three elements to obtain an order that the Disputed domain name shall be transferred or revoked:

- (i) the disputed domain name is identical or confusingly similar to a trademark or service mark in which the complainant has rights; and
- (ii) the respondent has no rights or legitimate interests in respect of the disputed domain name; and
- (iii) the disputed domain name has been registered and is being used in bad faith.

The Panel will proceed to analyze whether the three elements of paragraph 4(a) of the Policy are satisfied in this proceeding.

RIGHTS

The Disputed domain name is confusingly similar with the Complainant's Trademarks. The Panel concludes with the previous decisions concerning similar cases involving the Complainant that a slight spelling variations of the Disputed domain name (baehringer-ingelheim) are not sufficient to avoid confusing similarity to the Complainant's Trademarks (Boehringer-Ingelheim) (please see, for example, CAC Case No. 101517, Boehringer Ingelheim Pharma GmbH & Co.KG v. Raju Khan (<boehringeringelhein.com>), CAC Case No. 101519, Boehringer Ingelheim Pharma GmbH & Co.KG v. Abdulrauf Eljbour (<boehringer-ingeliheim.com>), WIPO Case No. D2016-1546 Boehringer Ingelheim Pharma GmbH & Co. KG of Ingelheim v. Martin Hughes (<boehringer-ingalheim.com>) or CAC Case No. 101449, Boehringer Ingelheim International GmbH v. Tia Seki (<boehringer-inqelheim.com>).

For sake of completeness, the Panel asserts that the top-level suffix in the domain name (i.e. the ".com") must be disregarded under the identity / confusing similarity test as it is a necessary technical requirement of registration.

Therefore, the Panel concludes that the Complainant satisfied the requirement under paragraph 4(a)(i) of the UDRP.

NO RIGHTS OR LEGITIMATE INTERESTS

The Complainant is required to make out a prima facie case that the Respondent lacks rights or legitimate interests. Once such prima facie case is made, the Respondent carries the burden of demonstrating rights or legitimate interests in the domain name. If the Respondent fails to do so, the Complainant is deemed to have satisfied paragraph 4(a)(ii) of the UDRP (please see, for example, WIPO case no. D2003-0455, Croatia Airlines d.d. v. Modern Empire Internet Ltd.).

As asserted by the Complainant (and unchallenged by the Respondent), the Respondent is not commonly known by the Disputed domain name. Neither is the Respondent in any way related to the Complainant. The Respondent failed to provide any information and evidence that it has relevant rights or legitimate interests in respect of the Disputed domain name (within the meaning of paragraph 4(a) (ii) of the Policy).

Therefore, the Panel concludes that the Respondent did not establish any right or legitimate interest to the Disputed domain name (within the meaning of paragraph 4(a)(ii) of the Policy).

BAD FAITH

The Panel believes that this case is a prima facie example of typosquatting which is one of the model situations of bad faith registration / use of a domain name (paragraph 4(b)(iv) of the Policy). As numerous previous decisions have held, typosquatting as such is evidence of bad faith (please see, for example, WIPO Case No. D2011-1079 bwin.party services (Austria) GmbH v. Interagentur AG; WIPO Case No. D2002-0568, Go Daddy Software, Inc. v. Daniel Hadani; WIPO Case No. D2002-0423 Dell Computer Corporation v. Clinical Evaluations, or WIPO Case No. D2001-0970, Briefing.com Inc v. Cost Net Domain Manager).

Furthermore, the Panel noted that as of 30 August 2017 there has been a downloading site named "Download4All" operated under the Dispute domain name. Such site apparently allows users (after registration) to download latest films, music and software. It appears extremely unlikely to the Panel that the Respondent could have been authorized by the holders of copyrights to such works to make these works available for download by the general public. The layout of the site as well as the presentation of its contents also clearly resemble an illicit downloading site (warez). Use of Disputed domain name for such apparently unlawful purpose is also a clear evidence of Respondent's bad faith (please see WIPO Case No. D2010-0569, RapidShare AG, Christian Schmid v. ivano yura / PrivacyProtect.org <rapidshareprime.net>).

As a result, the Panel found that the Disputed domain name has been registered and used by the Respondent in bad faith (within the meaning of paragraph 4(a)(iii) of the Policy).

FOR ALL THE REASONS STATED ABOVE, THE COMPLAINT IS Accepted

AND THE DISPUTED DOMAIN NAME(S) IS (ARE) TO BE
