BAD FAITH

PROCEDURAL FACTORS

The Panel is satisfied that all procedural requirements under UDRP were met and there is no other reason why it would be inappropriate to provide a decision.

PRINCIPAL REASONS FOR THE DECISION

1.

The Panel finds that the Disputed Domain Name <avgcustomersupport.com> is confusingly similar to the Complainant's trademark, since it consists of the Complainant's trademark “AVG” placed at the beginning of the Disputed Domain Name and combined with the generic terms "customer" and "support" that are descriptive and therefore likely to increase the possibility of confusion amongst consumers.

In the absence of any Response, or any other information from the Respondent indicating the contrary, the Panel further holds that the Complainant successfully presented its prima facie case and that the Respondent has no rights or legitimate interests in respect of the Disputed Domain Name.

In particular, the Respondent is neither affiliated with nor authorized by the Complainant in any way, and is not related in any way to the Complainant's business. Moreover, the Respondent has not demonstrated any preparations to use the Disputed Domain Name in connection with a bona fide offering of goods or services; in fact the Disputed Domain Name does currently resolve to a commercial website offering services in connection with the Complainant's products and displaying the Complainant's logo as if it was an official website linked to the Complainant. The Panel therefore shares the Complainant's view, that the Respondent registered the Disputed Domain Name with the intention to obtain financial advantage from the similarity between the Disputed Domain Name and the Complainant's trademark.

Finally, the Panel finds that the Disputed Domain Name has been registered and is being used in bad faith.

In fact, the Respondent has intentionally registered the Disputed Domain Name which reproduces the Complainant's trademark identically.

In addition, the Panel notes that Complainant's mark is deemed well-known and highly distinctive. Furthermore, the content of the website is clearly designed as a customer support page related to the Complainant, its products and trademarks. In the light of these facts and in the absence of any allegations and explanations from the Respondent indicating the contrary, the Panel has no doubts that Respondent actually knew that the Disputed Domain Name is highly similar to the Complainant's trademark when registering the Disputed Domain Name. Registration of a confusingly similar domain name in awareness of a reputed trademark and in the absence of rights or legitimate interests amounts to registration in bad faith.

FOR ALL THE REASONS STATED ABOVE, THE COMPLAINT IS Accepted

AND THE DISPUTED DOMAIN NAME(S) IS (ARE) TO BE

1. AVGCUSTOMERSUPPORT.COM: Transferred
