The Complainant also uses multiple domain names consisting of the wording "ARCELORMITTAL", such as <arcelormittal.com>, which is connected to the official website of the Complainant ("the Complainant's domain name").

FACTUAL BACKGROUND*FACTS ASSERTED BY THE COMPLAINANT AND NOT CONTESTED BY THE RESPONDENT:

PRINCIPAL REASONS FOR THE DECISION

I. The disputed domain name is confusingly similar to the Complainant's trademark

The Panel finds that the disputed domain name <arcelomittalsa.com> is confusingly similar to the Complainant's trademark. The disputed domain name incorporates the Complainant's trademark, albeit with the deletion of the letter R and the addition of the abbreviation "SA", which commonly stands for "Société Anonyme" (i.e. the Complainant's corporate form).

The Complainant rightfully contends that the deletion of the letter "R" and the addition of "SA" is not sufficient to escape the finding that the disputed domain name is confusingly similar to the Complainant's trademark. The Complainant's trademark is clearly recognizable in the disputed domain name, and accordingly, the disputed domain name is confusingly similar to the Complainant's trademark.

II. The Complainant has, to the satisfaction of the Panel, shown the Respondent to have no rights or legitimate interests in respect of the disputed domain name

The Panel notes that the Complainant has never granted the Respondent any license or authorization to use the Complainant's trademark for the disputed domain name, nor is the Respondent affiliated with the Complainant in any way.

The Panel notes that the Respondent's name or contact details contain no reference to ARCELORMITTAL or similar words or names and is not commonly known under the disputed domain name. Moreover, the disputed domain name is not used for any active website, and it appears that it has never been used for an active website since it was registered. The Respondent has not by virtue of the content of the website, nor by its use of the disputed domain name shown that the name will be used in connection with a bona fide offering of goods or services.

Therefore, the Panel finds that the Complainant has shown that the Respondent did not make a legitimate use of the disputed domain name for a bona fide offering of goods or services.

In lack of any Response from the Respondent, or any other information indicating the contrary, the Panel concludes that the Respondent has no rights or legitimate interests in respect of the disputed domain name.

III. The Complainant has, to the satisfaction of the Panel, shown that the disputed domain name was registered and is being used in bad faith

The Complainant's trademark is internationally well-known for metals and steel production. The reputation and distinctiveness of the Complainant's trademark indicate that the Respondent likely had knowledge of the Complainant's trademark at the time of the registration of the disputed domain name.

Moreover, the failure of the Respondent to use the disputed domain name for bona fide offerings and hence to present a credible evidence-backed rationale for registering and using the disputed domain name, as well as the passive holding of the disputed domain name, all show that the Respondent has registered and used the disputed domain name in bad faith.

In lack of any Response from the Respondent, or any other information indicating the contrary, the Panel concludes that the Respondent has registered and used the disputed domain name in bad faith.
