PROCEDURAL FACTORS

The Panel is satisfied that all procedural requirements under UDRP were met and there is no other reason why it would be inappropriate to provide a decision.

PRINCIPAL REASONS FOR THE DECISION

1. The Panel finds that the disputed domain name is confusingly similar to the Complainant's trademark ARCELORMITTAL which was registered prior to the registration of the disputed domain name as the Respondent has taken this trademark in its entirety and added "northamerica" to the ARCELORMITTAL trademark, which does not distinguish the disputed domain names from the Complainant's trademark.
2. The Panel finds that the Complainant successfully submitted prima facie evidence that the Respondent has no rights or legitimate interests in respect of the disputed domain name because the Complainant's allegations that no authorization has been given by the Complainant to the Respondent to use or register the disputed domain name, the Respondent has not been commonly known by the disputed domain name, as well as the Complainant's inference that the disputed domain name points to an error page, meaning that the Respondent has not used the disputed domain name, and has no demonstrable plan to use the disputed domain name, were not challenged by the Respondent.
3. The Panel finds that the disputed domain name was registered in bad faith as the Respondent should have been aware of the Complainant's trademarks ARCELORMITTAL when the Respondent registered the disputed domain name given the trademark's reputation (e.g., CAC Case No. 101908, ARCELORMITTAL v. China Capital and CAC Case No. 101667, ARCELORMITTAL v. Robert Rudd). The Panel further infers from the fact that the Respondent has undisputedly set up MX records, and also noting the fact that the disputed domain name resolves to an error page, that there is no conceivable or plausible use of the disputed domain name by the Respondent that would not be illegitimate. Accordingly, the Panel finds that the Complainant succeeded in proving that the Respondent registered and used the disputed domain name in bad faith.
