PROCEDURAL FACTORS

The Panel is satisfied that all procedural requirements under UDRP were met and there is no other reason why it would be inappropriate to provide a decision.

PRINCIPAL REASONS FOR THE DECISION

Identity (paragraph 4(a)(i) of the Policy)

The Panel finds that the disputed domain name <bnpparibas.top> is confusingly similar to the Complainant's BNP Paribas trademarks.

Indeed, the Complainant's BNP Paribas trademark is incorporated in the disputed domain name in its entirety.

The addition of the ".top" gTLD does not reduce the likelihood of confusion with the Complainant's BNP Paribas trademarks.

Thus, the Panel finds that the disputed domain name is identical to Complainant's trademarks.

Absence of Rights or Legitimate Interests (paragraph 4(a)(ii) of the Policy)

The Panel finds that the Respondent has not been authorized or granted a license by the Complainant.

Additionally, the Respondent is not commonly known by the disputed domain name. Therefore, the Panel concludes that the Respondent did not intend to use the disputed domain name in connection with any legitimate purpose, nor has the Respondent demonstrated a bona fide offer of services.

The disputed domain name resolves to a website offering training services. Therefore, the Panel finds that the Respondent used the disputed domain name in a way that does not confer rights and legitimate interests, as it is used to promote unrelated services. Besides the BNP Paribas is well-known throughout the world.

Furthermore, the Respondent had the opportunity to provide arguments supporting its rights or legitimate interests in the disputed domain name. However, by failing to file a response, the Respondent has missed this opportunity, and the Panel is entitled to draw such inferences from the Respondent's failure as it considers appropriate in accordance with Paragraph 14 of the Rules.

Accordingly, the Panel finds that the Respondent has no rights or legitimate interests with respect to the disputed domain name.

Bad faith (paragraph 4(a)(iii) of the Policy.)

The Panel finds that the Respondent could not have been unaware of the renowned BNP Paribas trademarks, given their extensive and exclusive use by the Complainant. Moreover, the BNP Paribas trademarks are highly distinctive, making it improbable that the Respondent was unaware of their existence.

Besides, the Respondent operates a website under the disputed domain name that resolves to a platform offering unrelated services. The Panel finds that this demonstrates the Respondent's intent to divert Internet users to its own website by exploiting the confusing similarity between the disputed domain name and the Complainant's trademark. By doing so, the Respondent seeks to unfairly benefit from the goodwill associated with the Complainant's mark. Such conduct constitutes registration and use in bad faith under the Policy (See, CAC-UDRP Case N° CAC-UDRP-102921, ARCELORMITTAL v. liu shuai, <mittalferroalloys.com>, February 18, 2020).

To the Panel's opinion, this shows that the disputed domain name was registered and is being used in bad faith.

FOR ALL THE REASONS STATED ABOVE, THE COMPLAINT IS Accepted

AND THE DISPUTED DOMAIN NAME(S) IS (ARE) TO BE
