FACTUAL BACKGROUND

Founded in 2011, the Complainant is a large global company that provides pet supplies and pet wellness-related services, including pet food, treats, supplies, and veterinary pharmaceutical products and services through its online retail store. In 2024 it earned almost $12 billion in net sales.

The Complainant owns numerous registrations for the trademark CHEWY. Its domain name <chewy.com> was created in April 2004 and is used for its official website at <https://www.chewy.com>.

The Respondent registered the disputed domain name on 12 March 2026 using a privacy service.

BAD FAITH

PROCEDURAL FACTORS

The Panel is satisfied that all procedural requirements under UDRP were met and there is no other reason why it would be inappropriate to provide a decision.

PRINCIPAL REASONS FOR THE DECISION

-Paragraph 4(a) of the Policy requires the Complainant to prove each of the following three elements:

- i. the disputed domain is identical or confusingly similar to a trademark or service mark in which the Complainant has rights;
- ii. the Respondent has no rights or legitimate interests in the disputed domain name; and
- iii. the disputed domain name has been registered and used in bad faith.

IDENTICAL OR CONFUSINGLY SIMILAR

Complainant owns numerous trademark registrations for CHEWY that predate the registration of the disputed domain name.

The disputed domain name fully incorporates Complainant's CHEWY mark, adding to it the words "pet" and "mart". These generic words are closely associated with the Complainant's business and do not avoid a finding that the disputed domain name is confusingly similar to the CHEWY mark. The Panel concludes the requirements of Paragraph 4(a)(i) of the Policy have been met.

NO RIGHTS OR LEGITIMATE INTERESTS

The Complainant has provided evidence to show its rights in the CHEWY mark and has established a prima facie case that the Respondent lacks rights or legitimate interest in the disputed domain name. The burden of proof now shifts to the Respondent to show that he has relevant rights.

The Respondent has not filed a Response, nor challenged any of the Complainant's assertions. The Respondent is not commonly known as the disputed domain name nor licensed or authorised to use the CHEWY mark. The disputed domain name resolves to a website featuring the Complainant's trademark and offers live pets and products and services similar to those offered by the Complainant, creating the false impression that it is an official CHEWY online store. Such use is not a bona fide offering nor a fair or legitimate noncommercial use of the disputed domain name.

The Panel concludes that the Respondent has no rights or legitimate interest in the disputed domain name and that the Complainant has met the requirements of paragraph 4(a)(ii) of the Policy.

REGISTERED AND BEING USED IN BAD FAITH

The Complainant's trademark is well-known and predates the registration of the disputed domain name. The Respondent has used a privacy service to conceal his identity. The disputed domain name resolves to a website purporting to offer live pets for sale under the CHEWY mark and logo. It is inconceivable that the Respondent did not know of the Complainant and its rights when he registered the disputed domain name.

The Panel concludes that the disputed domain name was both registered and is being used in bad faith and that the requirements of paragraph 4(a)(iii) of the Policy have been met.

FOR ALL THE REASONS STATED ABOVE, THE COMPLAINT IS Accepted

AND THE DISPUTED DOMAIN NAME(S) IS (ARE) TO BE

1. chewypetmart.com: Transferred
