

CURRICULUM VITAE

Name

Prof. Dr. LAMBERT GROSSKOPF LL.M.Eur.

Educational and Professional Qualifications

After graduating in jurisprudence and obtaining a postgraduate degree in European and International Law, Prof. Dr. L. Grosskopf, became a qualified lawyer in a major Bremen law firm – including many years as a partner – and established the department for IT, broadcasting and media law. Now Prof. Dr. L. Grosskopf is the head of a boutique - law firm, providing legal consulting in the broad field of intellectual property, as well as in Telecommunications, Information technology, Media and Entertainment (TIME).

Languages

German, English

Experience with respect to domain names related Arbitration/ Mediation

Prof. Dr. L. Grosskopf provides legal consulting in all aspects of domain names related arbitration and in court during litigation.

Experience with respect to IP related Mediation/Arbitration

Prof. Dr. L. Grosskopf is a lecturer in IT, copyright and media law at the University of Bremen and the Bremen University of Applied Sciences.

Prof. Dr. L. Grosskopf was the legal officer of one of the eleven royalty collecting societies authorized in Germany (VG Media).

Prof. Dr. L. Grosskopf was involved in several mediations concerning IT projects and as party-appointed arbitrator or as chair of IT arbitral tribunals.

Membership in professional bodies

GRUR (German Association of Intellectual Property and Copyright Law)

DGRI (German Society for Law and Information Technology)