

CURRICULUM VITAE

Name

Stefan Bojovic

Educational and Professional Qualifications

Educational Qualifications:

University of Belgrade, Faculty of Law, LL.M. in Intellectual Property (2014)

University of Belgrade, Faculty of Law, LL.B. (2012)

Professional Qualifications:

Serbian Trademark and Patent Attorney (2017)

Admitted to the Bar Association of Serbia – also qualified in Montenegro (2015)

Mediator for Intellectual Property disputes (2019)

Mediator registered with Ministry of Justice of Serbia (2018)

Current Position:

MSA IP – Milojevic Sekulic and Associates (2014)

Partner / Attorney at Law (2021)

Head of IT Law, Copyright and Contracts Practice group (2018)

Head of Domain Name practice (2018)

Languages

English, Serbian (including other languages from ex-Yugoslavian countries such as Bosnian, Croatian and Montenegrin)

Experience with respect to IP / domain names

WIPO Domain Name Panelist (2024).

Since 2014 has participated in and has supervised a number of domain name disputes, both on global scale and in the region of South East Europe. Representation of international and local clients in domain name disputes includes representation in UDRP and other ADR proceedings (both in respect to ccTLDs and gTLDs), before courts and in negotiations with third parties. Participated in several high-profile domain name transactions with cumulative value of over 1 million USD.

Membership in professional bodies

Serbian Bar Association (since 2015)

Belgrade Bar Association (since 2015)

ECTA - European Communities Trademark Association (since 2016) - member of Internet Committee (since 2017)

INTA - International Trademark Association (since 2018) – member of Copyright Committee (since 2024); previously member of Internet Committee and Trademark Office Practices Committee

IT IP Law Group Europe (since 2015)

NUMS - Serbian National Association of Mediators (since 2018)